10 DAYS | PERU | TOUGH

The feeling of walking through the Sun Gate to witness Machu Picchu for the first time will live with you forever.

The Trek to Machu Picchu follows the uncrowded Lares Valley route, surrounded by spectacular mountains, raging rivers, hot springs and remote mountain communities.

Celebrate your success with the group as you marvel at the awe-inspiring lost Incan city of Machu Picchu.

- Reach the lost city of Machu Picchu via the Sun Gate, on World Mental Health day
- Admire the spectacular scenery of the Andes mountains
- Follow the uncrowded Ancascocha trail
- Explore the Ancient Inca capital of Cusco

YOUR CHALLENGE DAY BY DAY

DAY 1 Fri 04 Oct

International departure from London

It's finally time for your long-awaited departure to Peru. Wave goodbye to friends and family, before you board the flight and embark upon your challenge!

DAY 2 Sat 05 Oct

Flight to Cusco (3350m)

Bienvenidos and welcome to Peru.

Touching down in the ancient Inca Capital of Cusco (3,350m), you'll be greeted by a local Charity Challenge representative and transferred to your next two nights' accommodation. As altitude sickness can be a problem, you will spend the rest of the day acclimatising to the altitude with an afternoon free to take things at your own pace. Relax in one of the many cafés overlooking the plaza, visit the Incan monument Qoricancha (Temple of the Sun), or head to the vibrant market to soak up the surroundings before a full briefing and the first team dinner.

Accommodation: Hotel

DAY 3 Sun 06 Oct

Acclimatisation walk (approximately 3 hours)

Acclimatising to the altitude is all-important, so the day will spent walking around the Cusco area, stopping for a picnic lunch. Later, you'll head back to city for dinner, before returning to your three-star hotel.

Accommodation: Hotel

DAY 4 Mon 07 Oct

Cusco to Cuncani, 3,800m (approximately 4-5 hours)

Rise and shine for an early morning drive to the Sacred Valley, from where the challenge will commence. Along the way, we stop at a local market and then soak up the fortifying minerals in the famous Lares hot springs. After lunch, it's a long hike to the small village of Cuncani, where you'll camp for the night.

Accommodation: Camping

DAY 5 Tue 08 Oct

Cuncani to Huacahuasi (approximately 6-8 hours)

After breakfast, it's a take long hike to the small community of Huacahuasi. Spot the alpacas and llamas roaming along the way, though careful they don't try to share your picnic lunch! Spend the night in a campsite by the river in Huacahuasi.

Accommodation: Camping

DAY 6 Wed 09 Oct

Huacahuasi to Ollantaytambo (appr-9 hooximately 8urs)

Awake with the rising sun, you set off early gradually gaining height along the little-used route through the Ranrayoc valley. It's time to dig deep for the high pass at 4,600m before enjoying the incredible views. Lunch will be served at 4,378m in the shadow of snowy mountain Tirijhuay. From here it's about a three-hour descent, followed by an hour driving to the campsite on the outskirts of Ollantaytambo.

Accommodation: Camping

DAY 7 Thu 10 Oct

Ollantaytambo to Machu Picchu via Sun Gate on World Mental Health day (approximately 6-7 hours)

It's an early train journey to Km 104 (along the railway from Cusco), where you'll be dropped for your trek towards the famous Sun Gate, which we reach on World Mental Health day. It's a 3,000 step climb following the traditional Inca path, before you catch your first awe-inspiring view of the sacred site of Machu Picchu from the Sun Gate. There'll be plenty of time for photographs before returning to Aguas Calientes for the evening.

Accommodation: Hotel

DAY 8 Fri 11 Oct

Machu Picchu to Cusco

It's back to Machu Picchu to spend the morning exploring the extraordinary Inca remains. You'll catch an early afternoon train back to Ollantaytambo, before boarding a bus bound for Cusco. It's party time later at a local restaurant, as you and the group celebrate achieving your Charity Challenge goal and discovering the majesty of Machu Picchu.

Accommodation: Hotel

DAY 9 Sat 12 Oct

Depart Peru

After breakfast it's time to say "adios" as you travel to the airport to begin your journey home.

DAY 10 Sun 13 Oct

Arrive UK

Touching down in the UK, it's time to head to arrivals to find your family and friends. Don't forget to swap details with your teammates as only they share the memories of your incredible journey.

NB

Should you suffer from vertigo, it is worth considering that on most mountain treks there will be occasional exposure to sheer drops. Therefore you should discuss the particular itinerary with a member of our team.

Inca Trail Passes: please note that for this challenge you need an Inca pass to complete the last day of trekking. There are only a limited amount of passes printed for each day. In order to purchase them for you, please try and book onto the challenge as early as possible with passport details that will be correct on your chosen date of departure. Should your passport details change, your pass will NOT be valid and we may not be able to secure another one. If you book onto the challenge late we cannot guarantee that we will be able to secure a pass for you. You will be advised on booking if this is the case and you may choose an alternative departure date, or we can talk you through alternative arrangements that we can make.

THE DETAILS

Fundraising deadlines

You will need to send your sponsorship money to the charity as you raise it. At least 80% of the minimum sponsorship required must be sent to the charity 10 weeks before departure (by 26/07/2019), and the remaining 20% within 4 weeks of completing the challenge (by 10/11/2019). If you have raised the necessary funds, the charity will then pay the balance of your challenge costs. The charity benefits by keeping the remaining sponsorship money and every pound over and above that you raise.

Prices include all known air taxes

We include ALL known air taxes (including fuel) at the time of costing. Many companies do not include air taxes at all, and clients are therefore hit with a surcharge of three or four hundreds of pounds just before departure. Our aim is to provide you with transparent pricing and clear instructions as to what is included in our prices and if applicable what isn't.

Raising the sponsorship

Thank you so much for choosing to fundraise for Mind. We really appreciate your support. Should you need any further assistance or help with your fundraising then please contact the team at community@mind.org.uk and we will endeavour to get back to you as soon as we can!

Typical group size

The typical group size is 20 - 30 participants

Small group supplement

The costs and sponsorship levels on our website are based on a minimum of 20 participants. We can run this trip with 16-19 people, but there will be a small group supplement of £75. This is payable by your charity if you book under the Minimum Sponsorship or Flexi options, and by yourself if you choose the Self Funder option. We will notify you 12 weeks before departure if this is necessary.

Optional extras

Extensions at end of trip*
Single room supplements*
Business class upgrades*
(*subject to availability)

Travel insurance

Your safety when travelling with Charity Challenge is our main concern, which is why it is a booking condition that you have a suitable travel insurance policy, which covers you for the adventurous nature of your challenge, the activities you are undertaking, and the altitudes. We have chosen to partner with specialist travel insurance providers Campbell Irvine, who offer cover for an extensive number of adventurous activities. Cover is available directly from Campbell Irvine for most European residents and includes cover for emergency medical and repatriation and for your cancellation or curtailment of the challenge. Full details including costs may be found at <https://www.campbellirvine.com/charitychallenge>.

Level of Difficulty

The Trek to Machu Picchu Challenge is graded as Tough. This is the perfect challenge for participants who are of an adventurous spirit and an open mind and with previous trekking experience. You will need a good level of fitness in order to undertake this challenge. You can tell your supporters that on your Trek to Machu Picchu Challenge you will be:

- Trekking an average of 6-8 hours per day.
- Trekking at high altitude
- The maximum altitude reached is 4600 metres above sea level
- Trekking through remote areas where facilities are basic.

Typical day

During the trekking days you rise early and pack up camp after breakfast, then trek carrying only daypacks for 6 to 8 hours, stopping for lunch en route. You will have plenty of time to stop and view the remarkable scenery. The trek zone is remote and home to rare flora and fauna. The evenings are spent in beautifully located camps/hotels, situated in the shadows of nearby mountain peaks. The food and facilities are generally good.

Safety

Charity Challenge considers the safety of all of its participants and staff to be a top priority, and as such we have set up one of the most advanced and thorough safety management systems in the industry. Our Challenge Safe brand formalises our ethos when it comes to safety, and brings together the procedures and risk management strategies that we use to audit all aspects of our challenges, from vehicles to accommodation to the activity itself. Your welfare is paramount!

In terms of your Trek to Machu Picchu Challenge, there are a couple of important points that you should be aware of:

- You will be trekking at high altitude. The highest altitude is 4600 metres.
- You will be flying to Cusco (3350 metres).
- There are 2 days of acclimatisation built into this itinerary.
- You will be trekking through remote areas where facilities are basic.

Responsible Tourism

It is our aim to make your challenge experience unforgettable. We also wish to contribute positively towards the communities and the destinations that we visit.

On your trek to Machu Picchu we commit to the following:

Wherever possible using local leaders and support staff:

- Your challenge leader for your Machu Picchu trek will be a local, well trained and knowledgeable professional leader. All our leaders for this challenge are either native from or long term residents of Peru. This will ensure that you not only will have a much higher level of engagement with the local culture, but also knowledge of the environment, local ways of living, history and experiences from the locals.

- During your trek you will pass through lots of communities. We support these communities by asking our ground handlers to employ support staff straight from them. For example, the local chefs will be providing you with delicious meal after your hard day of trekking. Not only does this ensure that the money is going straight back into the community but it also means you can learn so much more from them about their culture and lives. We also camp on lands owned by the community and pay them fees. This allows them to improve their campsites by building public bathrooms and showers and therefore supporting local sustainable businesses. These are camps such as Cuncani, Huacahausi and Rumira.
- The support of our local staff does not stop after your challenge has finished. Our ground handler provides annual training on safety, group management, environmental protection management, and First Aid. This continued support throughout the year empowers our local leaders and helps to keep them up to date with best practice.

Using local produce and reducing our plastic footprint:

- In order to have the freshest food and the best water we source it along the way from the local areas /campsites / communities of Chilipahua and Camicancha. Where possible you will have delicious potatoes and trout fished from the fresh flowing rivers. The fresh water cuts down our use of plastic bottles, and of course all this fresh water will help you to stay hydrated.

Animal Welfare:

- Mules are used by the local crew to transport the camp equipment from site to site. The muleteers are part of the local crew and animal welfare is monitored by our in country suppliers as part of the agreement with Charity Challenge.

Amazon Jungle Extension

See a completely different side to Peru on this Amazon Jungle experience. Now the challenge is complete, you can rest your weary limbs in an amazing eco-lodge where knowledgeable guides provide a range of activities and teach you about the region's native flora and fauna.

Flights

You will be flying from London Heathrow Airport to Cusco. The journey will take approx. 16 hours including stops. Your flight tickets will be e-mailed to you before departure. If you Choose to book your own flights you must confirm with the Charity Challenge office before paying otherwise you may be liable for your included group flights (please contact flights@charitychallenge.com for further assistance).

If flying with LATAM via Madrid, Madrid airport conducts strict security checks regarding hand luggage.

At Lima airport please ensure that you collect your luggage from the luggage belt as you will have to clear customs and then re-check it in for your domestic flight.

Visa and Permits

Visa

British citizens do not require a visa for Peru. When entering Peru, participants will be asked to fill out a white embarkation card. This piece of paper is very important. You cannot leave the country without a copy; however, if you do happen to lose it you are able to buy another for a small fee on departure. Ensure your entry stamp is legible as it is required by hotels for the exoneration of Peruvian tax. You must hold a full ten-year passport with at least six months to run from the end of your challenge, and at least one blank page for your visa and entry/exit stamps.

Permits

Inca Trail Passes: please note that for this challenge you need an Inca pass to complete the last day of trekking. There are only a limited amount of passes printed for each day. In order to purchase them for you, please try and book onto the challenge as early as possible with passport details that will be correct on your chosen date of departure. Should your passport details change, your pass will NOT be valid and we may not be able to secure another one. If you book onto the challenge late we cannot guarantee that we will be able to secure a pass for you. You will be advised on booking if this is the case and you may choose an alternative departure date, or we can talk you through alternative arrangements that we can make.

Please note that Inca Trail passes are non-refundable and non-transferable. If you choose to transfer your challenge to a later date, you will be charged the cost of the Inca Pass

Insurance

It is a condition of booking that you have a suitable travel insurance policy whilst participating on the challenge. We have a special policy which covers among other things, medical (emergency, evacuation and repatriation) arrangements, cancellation and curtailment of the challenge, and more specifically for the adventurous activities undertaken on this challenge.

If you have your own travel insurance policy, you must ensure that it provides at least the same level of cover as our recommended policy, including protecting the charity in the event of your cancellation 56 days or less prior to departure. If you choose not to purchase our recommended policy when you book we will send you a disclaimer which you should complete and return.

For more general travel insurance questions, please refer to our main FAQs page.

Vaccinations & medication

Vaccinations

For up to date vaccination information please check the Travel Health Pro website:

<https://travelhealthpro.org.uk/countries>

Charity Challenge team are not medical experts and we would encourage you to visit your GP or travel nurse to discuss vaccination requirements. Your GP may ask questions about the specific locations that you are visiting so it may be useful to take a copy of your itinerary with you.

Medication

- carry medicines (including those bought over the counter) in their correctly labelled container, as issued by the pharmacist, in hand luggage
- consider packing a spare supply of medication in the hold luggage in case of loss of hand luggage
- a letter from the prescriber detailing the medicines with the generic names for the medications can be helpful for border control checks, and in case medicines have to be replaced or medical help is required

- carry a note from the prescribing physician on letterhead stationery for controlled substances and injection medications
- take out an appropriate level of travel health insurance including repatriation and specific cover for any pre-existing illnesses

N.B. Some medications are banned abroad so please check you can find further information at

<https://travelhealthpro.org.uk/factsheet/43/medicines-abroad>

Climate & Terrain

Climate

Peru's climate has two seasons – wet and dry – though the weather varies depending on the geographical region. In the Andes there is a dry season (April to October) and a wet season (mid November to March). The average temperature throughout the year goes from around 8.5°C/47.3°F (June to August) to around 10.8°C/51.4°F (September to May). In the Andes the temperature can vary up to 15° from day to night-time, especially at higher altitudes during the challenge. As the trip goes from the Andes to the cloud forest you can expect to experience all different types of weather and should be suitably equipped to cover this. Temperatures can likely to go below freezing at night especially at campsites and during the day will be relatively warm making for pleasant hiking weather. Expect some rain, hot sunshine, humid jungle conditions, as well as dry, cold high altitude conditions.

Terrain

The route is mountainous. There will be several uphill sections, especially on day 2 and 3 of the trek itself. On day 4 of the trek you will have to climb several steep steps under humid and hot conditions. Walking poles are strongly advised.

Training

This challenge is graded 'Tough', which means that a good level of fitness is definitely required! Anyone who leads a fairly active and moderately healthy lifestyle should be able to complete the trek, as long as they train regularly over a period of at least three months leading up to altitude. Don't forget that the temperature and the altitudes are different from the UK – the highest pass on this trek is 4,600m. While strength is important, endurance training should be your primary focus. Walking up hills and climbing stairs are both ways to condition your lower body. Begin slowly, without the weight of a pack, eventually adding weight as you increase your training pace. Take long hikes (6-8 hours) with a weighted pack, up and down hills or mountains (weigh your pack with water containers and pour out the water before your descent to minimise knee stress).

Challenge Training

If you would like to get a feel for our challenges ahead of your departure, why not consider booking on a 1 or 2 day UK Challenge?

We have a variety of challenges, covering all levels of difficulty, taking place in stunning National Parks across the UK that are led by highly qualified and experienced expedition and mountain leaders. These challenges will give you the perfect opportunity to monitor fitness levels, test out your kit, meet people in the great outdoors, share fundraising stories and gain valuable advice and support for the challenge ahead. We encourage participants to make use of our highly knowledgeable leaders and ask them any questions you may have about clothing and equipment, expedition health and wellbeing, trekking skills, walking techniques and teamwork!

We are offering all participants 50% off the registration fee when you book on one of the UK challenges listed via the link below. Just use the code TRAINING when booking. T&C's – you must have an active booking on a challenge to avail of this offer. Discount cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer. Find out more here

Luggage allowance and valuables

As no formal clothes are needed, luggage should be kept to the absolute minimum – details of what to pack are provided in your Kit List. Your main kit bag, or rucksack, must not exceed 23kgs in weight, but for the five days you are away from Cusco you can safely store any extra belongings at the hotel.

The packing information for Peru is different for other challenges, so listen carefully! When you set off on your trek, you will leave your main bag at the hotel in Cusco, which will have any extra toiletries or casual clothes that you don't need. This bag will be staying at Cusco until the end of your challenge.

For use on the trek section, you will be given a holdall that will carry any trekking gear that you need for the 4 days and ideally your sleeping bag. This will be transported by the support team during the challenge and the weight will not exceed 10kg per passenger. You will carry a daypack for your daily needs such as suncream, waterproofs, camera etc.

Dry bags will be provided in country.

While we will do everything to provide adequate safety for the group and security for your possessions, the general rule is that if you don't need it, don't bring it. This includes jewellery, necklaces and rings. Your flight tickets can be left in a safe in the hotel in Cusco or with the ground handler and collected on your departure. You must take your passport with you during the trek. It should be kept in a plastic bag to protect it from damp or water damage.

Leadership

We employ a number challenge leaders, all of whom speak fluent English, as well as local GP's. They will be ultimately responsible for the running of the itinerary and the safety of your group.

Group Size

Each group is intended to be a minimum of 16 people in order to run and a maximum of 30 people. We will be able to run this challenge for 16 to 19 people by charging a small group supplement of £75 which will be added to your final balance invoice (self funders) or charged to your charity (minimum sponsorship or flexi).

Clothing and equipment

Good quality, durable kit could mean the difference between a fantastic challenge experience and an uncomfortable

one. For this challenge, waterproof, well-worn in boots will be indispensable, particularly coupled with some really good quality walking socks. You don't need a clean pair every day, but enough to make sure you have dry socks each morning. The benefits of a comfortable day sack cannot be underestimated, so make sure that you train with this. Other essentials are high quality gore-tex waterproof and windproof jackets and trousers, and technical/wicking t-shirts rather than cotton shirts. Walking poles are also recommended, as a preventative as well as for anyone with any pre-existing leg injuries or niggles. A full kit list for this challenge can be found here, and once you book you will have access to kit discounts with our partners Outdoorhire, Cotswold Outdoor and Cycle Surgery.

Accommodation & Toilets

Accommodation

In Cusco and Aguas Calientes the accommodation will be in small, local-run hotels (2 or 3 star), with rooms for two or three people sharing. During the trek you will camp in spacious two person dome tents. If you would like your own room/tent, this can be arranged if there is availability but there will be a single room supplement. Please let Charity Challenge know if you are travelling with a friend or partner who you wish to share with. Please be aware hotels do their best to provide hot water for all guests within the capacity of water heating systems in place within each building, and on occasion water may be cold.

Toilets

Toilet tents are supplied during the challenge. They are set up near the campsite at specific locations away from watercourses. Toilet paper is provided. You will be provided with warm water for washing. A portable toilet will be set up at all meal stops and camps. During the actual trekking day, you will have to make use of the bushes and rocks. Please ensure you have a few nappy bags to dispose of used toilet roll and hand sanitiser.

Food & Drink

The meals we provide are nutritionally balanced and well suited to the environment and altitude. Breakfast will usually include cereals, bread, fresh fruit, juice and coffee. Lunches will either be in the form of a packed lunch given out at breakfast to be carried in the daypack, provided in a mess tent set up along the route or taken in a local restaurant. Dinner always includes a soup/starter, main course and a dessert. The vegetarian food is excellent. Please let Charity Challenge know prior to departure if you have any dietary requirements or allergies.

Money

Currency: Peru uses the Sol as its currency, USD$ are also widely used. For up to date currency exchange, go to www.xe.com. You should ideally bring a combination of Soles and dollars, or bring dollars that you can change into Soles on arrival in Peru.

Credit Cards: Credit cards are welcomed in Cusco (Visa, MasterCard, Diners and American Express), but take cash for small towns or pueblos. Major credit cards are accepted in most hotels, shops and restaurants.

ATMs: You will find ATMs in Cusco, located in the airport, the city centre or near banks.

How much to bring: You will not need a large amount of money during this trip, as most expenses are included. You should only need money for tips, food & drink (additional), gifts and souvenirs. There are a wide range of souvenirs to buy, including rugs, ponchos, and jewellery. On average around £150- £200 + a credit card in case of an emergency, should suffice. Keep in mind that, other than at the start and end of the trip, you will be in the mountains away from any foreign exchanges or banks. We therefore recommend that you carry some cash. You will mainly need soles and just enough dollars in small denominations for the staff tips for this trip.

Tipping: Tipping is personal and at your sole discretion. You should only tip if you feel that you have received good service. We recommend the equivalent of approx. US$10 per person per day (approx $70) in Peruvian Soles (ideally in small denominations), and this should be given to the challenge leader during the trek who will distribute it among the support team, including guides, assistant guides cooks, and porters.

Phone and WiFi

During your stay in Cusco and Aguas Calientes you will have good wi-fi access and phone signal. On camping days there will be no wi-fi and phone signal will be extremely limited.

Emergencies

The event is not run as a race and there is always a large discrepancy in people's walking abilities. This is allowed for. There will be a staff member at the back of the group at all times to ensure that you are not left behind and can take things at your own pace. In the event of an emergency all guides and leaders maintain contact via radio, with mules available and the support vehicle not far away. If somebody is unable to walk at all, then we can transport him or her from one location to the next.

Having the opportunity to interact with the local community was fantastic. It felt like we were helping to support them, as well as raising money for our Charities. The guides were so knowledgeable and passionate that it made the experience even more special.

Lorraine Davidson

This is the best and hardest thing I have ever done. I wanted to leave my 50's on a high, and I genuinely did that in Peru! A fantastic experience!

Jackie Furby

The absolute BEST DAY for me was reaching Machu Picchu via the Sun Gate along the Inca trail...that was outstanding and something I'll never forget! Thanks for an unforgettable experience.
